Relaxing

► WHITEWATER RAFTING

Nothing makes a splash during vacation like rafting or kayaking through a deep mountain gorge on the rushing Nantahala River. Guides, equipment and everything you need are right here.

► SCENIC RAILWAY

"All Aboard" at Bryson City Depot. Take an old-fashioned railroad excursion through the beautiful Nantahala Gorge and beyond. Daily excursions and railroading events April through December.

► MOUNTAIN TRAILS

There are hundreds upon hundreds of miles of blazed and wilderness trails for hikers, bikers and horseback riders. Detailed maps are available at our visitor center.

► FLORA & FAUNA

The only place on Earth with more than 1,400 flowering plants, 140 types of trees, and more than 300 species of animals, birds and fish.

► SHOPPING

Downtown Bryson City features several galleries and shops filled with handcrafted items to enhance your home and your life. Arts, crafts, home décor and much more.

► TROUT & SPORT FISHING

Fill your creel from seemingly endless mountain streams generously stocked with brown, rainbow and the elusive native brook trout. Our lakes are swimming with bream, bass, walleye and crappie just waiting to take your bait.

► WATER SPORTS

Canoes, rowboats, pontoon boats, ski boats, houseboats, fishing boats and even inner tubes all have plenty of room to roam across 30 sprawling miles of beautiful Fontana Lake.

► CHEROKEE TERRITORY

Discover Native American history, culture and craft on the Cherokee Indian Reservation. Explore the museum, Indian Village and "Unto These Hills," the outdoor drama that portrays the poignant story of the Cherokee Nation.

► MOTORCYCLING

Mountain roads are curvy, scenic and exciting, like "The Dragon," with 318 curves in just 11 miles.

► MOUNTAIN HERITAGE

For more than 100 years we've welcomed travelers and vacationers to the natural beauty of the Great Smoky Mountains. Discover our pioneering past as you explore this unique World Heritage Site. National historic landmarks and mountain traditions abound.

► SOUTHERN HOSPITALITY

Enjoy down-home cooking or international cuisine. Spend cool, quiet nights at our historic bed & breakfasts, cozy inns, comfortable motels, mountain cabins, or our public and private campgrounds.
