

WEEKEND GETAWAY

Why Go: Take a trip to Bryson City to escape the stress of everyday life. Relax in our quaint mountain town, get back to nature, or enjoy a weekend of unique shopping and dining experiences.

Must-See: The Deep Creek waterfalls – three waterfalls, easily among the most picturesque in the Smokies, located just inside the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and an easy hike from the parking area.

Where to Stay: Enjoy your getaway in a luxury mountainside cabin or a cottage by the creek. If the rustic charm of a country inn sounds more like your style, we have several to offer.

Good Eats: Bryson City has a variety of restaurants and cafés, each possessing a distinct personality and fare. From local to more sophisticated cuisine, you're sure to notice the homegrown freshness in every bite!

Insider's Tip: Artists and craftsmen abound in Bryson City and unique works can be found in shops lining Main, Everett and Frye streets and galleries just off the beaten path.

Where to Play: Just a few miles outside of Bryson City is one of the country's most popular rivers for whitewater rafting, the Nantahala. Catch a ride on this river with one of the many outfitters located in the Nantahala Gorge.

Shop 'til You Drop: There are many shops located in downtown Bryson City where you can find upscale home accents, candles, antiques, collectibles, handmade crafts and Native American art.

There are so many things to do in Bryson City and Swain County that we can't begin to list them all here. But you can find everything you need to know about this fantastic mountain town on our website, GreatSmokies.com.
